

“Captain Ross” passes away

Mr. Ross Little, Research security guard for many years, passed away February 21, 2015.

Dubbed “Captain Ross” by Dr. Naranjan Dhalla, Little was awarded the Jack Litvack Exemplary Service Award in September, 1999 for his dedication to service and excellence to the Institute of Cardiovascular Sciences. His memory for names was legendary, as he would greet all Research staff by name with a friendly “Good Morning”.

Ross meets Prime Minister Jean Chrétien, June 12, 2000
